

ISC and SGEU Local 2214 Reach New Five-Year Collective Agreement

March 3, 2026

REGINA, Saskatchewan, March 03, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Information Services Corporation (TSX:ISC) (ISC or the Company) and the Saskatchewan Government & General Employees' Union (SGEU) announced today that the membership of SGEU Local 2214 has ratified a new collective agreement with respect to ISC's in-scope employees.

"This agreement enhances the stability of our registry operations and reflects the strong partnership we have with SGEU," said Shawn Peters, President and CEO. "The new collective agreement reinforces our commitment to supporting our people and allows us to stay focused on delivering best in class service. I want to thank both negotiating teams for their hard work and look forward to growing together with a supportive partner in SGEU."

"This is an agreement that helps our members meet the rising cost of living," said SGEU's ISC Bargaining Chair, Steve LaVallee. "Our union is proud of the advances we've made in this workplace. We're grateful for the strong support of our members through this process."

The previous collective agreement expired on September 30, 2025. The new five-year agreement ending September 30, 2030 includes annual wage increases effective October 1 of each year, consisting of 3 per cent retroactive to 2025, 3 per cent in 2026, 3 per cent in 2027, 2 per cent in 2028 and 2 per cent in 2029.
